

Death penalty

Death penalty in the Bible

- For all these „crimes“ the bible wants you to punish you with capital punishment
- In the Old Testament:
 - – all adulterers (Leviticus 20:10)
 - – all onanists (Genesis 38:8-10)
 - – all sorceresses (Exodus 22:18)
 - – all false prophets (Zechariah 13:3; Leviticus 20:27)
 - – all sinners (Ezekiel 18:4)
 - – all the curious (1 Samuel 6:19-20)
 - – all non-Hebrews and their livestock (Deuteronomy 20:16-17) –
 - all uncircumcised (Genesis 17:14)
 - – sons of sinners (Isaiah 14:21)
 - – all unbelievers (2 Chronicles 15:12-13)
 - – anyone who curses God (Leviticus 24:16)
 - – any child who strikes their parents (Exodus 21:15)
 - – children who disobey their parents (Deuteronomy 21:20)
 - – all who curse their father or mother (Leviticus 20:9)
 - – all who work on the Sabbath (Exodus 31:15)
 - – foreigners who approach the temple (Numbers 1:48-51)
 - – all male enemies after a victorious

- battle (Deuteronomy 20:13)
- any bride who is not a virgin (Deuteronomy 22:21)
 - those who worship false gods (Numbers 25:1-9; Deuteronomy 13:13-16)
 - anyone who kills another (Leviticus 24:17)
 - anyone who eats blood (Leviticus 7:27)
 - anyone who has sexual intercourse during menstruation (Leviticus 20:18)
 - anyone who neglects the Passover (Numbers 9:13)
 - Also in the New Testament:
 - all homosexuals (Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1:21-32)
 - disobedient children (Exodus 21:17; Mark 7:10)
 - illegitimate children (Revelation 2:23)
 - In the New Testament, the death penalty is demanded for insolent boys, illegitimate children, and homosexuals.
