

Questions to Islam

✘ Questions to the Centre of Islam in Tuebingen

Is Islam reformable? The centre of Islam is on the right track! However, I see many contradictions between the Quran and our constitution.

The Quran and the Hadiths that form the core of Islam answer the following questions with „No“. To make Islam following our constitution they should have been answered with “Yes”.

Is the Quran allowed to be changed?

Are believing Muslims and unbelievers humans of equal rights?

Should Islam tolerate humanists and atheists?

Are believers of other religions allowed to worship their gods?

Are men and women of equal rights?

Does Islam prohibit polygamy, circumcision of girls and honour killings?

Are Muslims allowed to apostate from Islam?

Is Islam against capital punishment?

Is Islam against inhuman punishment such as wiping; cutting of hands and stoning?

Is Islam against slavery, racketeering and extortion, wars of robbing, looting and booting?

Is it allowed to criticise Islam, the Quran or Mohammed?

Will Islam renounce terror or contract killing, if it is insulted?

Does Islam allow other religions to erect houses of worship in Islamic countries?

Are Muslims allowed to make friends with unbelievers?

Does Islam prohibit deceiving unbelievers? (Taqiyya)

Does Islam agree on the separation of religion and state?

Do human rights and our Basic Law stand above the Sharia?

Is Islam in favour of democracy?

Is Islam a religion that can renounce global domination?